John 12:3 & John 12:7

3 Then Mary took an extraordinary amount, almost three-quarters of a pound, of very expensive perfume made of pure nard. She anointed Jesus' feet with it, then wiped his feet dry with her hair. The house was filled with the aroma of the perfume.

7 Then Jesus said, "Leave her alone. This perfume was to be used in preparation for my burial, and this is how she has used it.

Thoughts For Reflection:

My experience is that God wants us to know and follow his energy, his purpose, his love, and, often, what we are to do is hidden in plain sight, within the longing, the talents and gifts, the desires and delights of our own inner being. He doesn't want to hide his will from us, but sometimes it takes time and trouble to hear and see exactly what he is up to."

Prelude: Jesus Came Out Alive / For God So Loved

Welcome & Announcements:

Centering Prayer: "Loving and gracious God, as we move farther away from the date of Easter, may our hearts remain close to you as the Living Christ. May our hearts be open this morning to what You might reveal to us and how You might guide us. Gather us all together as a community that follows You. Amen."
