Ephesians 3:14-19

14 When I think of all this, I fall to my knees and pray to the Father 15 the Creator of everything in heaven and on earth. 16 I pray that from his glorious, unlimited resources he will empower you with inner strength through his Spirit. 17 Then Christ will make his home in your hearts as you trust in him. Your roots will grow down into God's love and keep you strong. 18 And may you have the power to understand, as all God's people should, how wide, how long, how high, and how deep his love is. 19 May you experience the love of Christ, though it is too great to understand fully. Then you will be made complete with all the fullness of life and power that comes from God.

1 John 4:7-8

7 Dear friends, let us continue to love one another, for love comes from God. Anyone who loves is a child of God and knows God. 8 But anyone who does not love does not know God, for God is love.

Message:

"Let Us See What Love Can Do"

Open Worship: In this time of open worship, Friends take time to center down, wait on God to provide ministry to your soul and see if God wishes to use you as an instrument of grace.

Hymn: "Lord, We Come to Ask Your Healing" (Insert)

Benediction:

Thoughts for Reflection:

"The most powerful, most needed, and most essential teaching is always about Love. Love is our foundation and our destiny. It is where we come from and where we're headed...God's love is planted inside each of us as the Holy Spirit...All I can do is remind you of what you already know deep within your True Self and invite you to live connected to this Source...we were created by a loving God to be love in the world."

(Richard Rohr)

Spiritual Practice: A spiritual practice is an action we take that can help move inspiration towards action. It's putting our spiritual life into practice. This week, practice opening yourself up to moments of God's love and simply sitting with those moments. Remind yourself how loved you are by God.
